

Start Your Career in Nuclear Security

Become an NNSA Graduate Fellow

US Department of Energy National Nuclear Security Administration Graduate Fellowship Program Building Leaders for Nuclear Security

The NNSA Graduate Fellowship Program is seeking highly motivated graduate-level students for one-year salaried (plus benefits) fellowships for policy and technical opportunities in nuclear security. Positions are based in Washington, DC and other NNSA sites around the US

Join us on campus to learn more:

Ryan Boscow

NGFP Recruiting Lead

Dr. Jessica Paul (PhD '15)

NNSA Fellow: Nonproliferation R&D

Monday August 24th at 11:00 AM
Boggs Chemistry Bldg, Rm. 3-47

*Get hands-on experience • Visit National Laboratories
Bridge policy and technology • Apply the latest R&D*

Eligibility

- U.S. citizen eligible for a security clearance
- Currently enrolled in a Master's or Ph.D program
- Minimum 3.2 GPA cumulative

Apply online at

<http://ngfp.pnnl.gov>

May 15, 2015 – October 19, 2015

Check us out online at
<http://ngfp.pnnl.gov>

NNSA
National Nuclear Security Administration