

Spring Semester, 2019 - Weekly Schedule for Cognitive Aging/CBS Research Seminars

Place: Room 161, J. S. Coon Psychology Building
Day: Wednesdays
Time: 12:20-1:15 PM
Participants: All interested parties

Date	Speaker	Topic/Title
1/9		(Organizational Meeting)
1/16	Geoff McKinley	The cognitive consequences of looking up information
1/23	Dan Spieler	Ethics discussion
1/30	Yousef Bushehri	But is There a Cross Walk? a speculation on the application of shape machine for visualizing inaccessible pedestrian paths using Open Street Maps data.
2/6	Taylor Curley	The effects of distinctiveness-based encoding on retrospective memory judgments
2/13	Dan Spieler	Building semantic representations
2/20	Cody Mashburn	Does adding measures of attention control ability add incremental validity to the ASVAB?
2/27	Jenny Walker	Stuck in The Middle: The Shortage of Affordable Housing Options for Low-Income Older Adults
3/6	Emily Lustig
3/13	Emily Hokett	Habitual Sleep Patterns and Memory in Young and Older Adults
3/20	SPRING BREAK
3/27	Rob Ashwill	Using feature overlap to predict picture naming
4/3	Taylor James	Depression and memory across the adult lifespan: A meta-analysis
4/10	Farshad Rafiei	Effect of TMS on BOLD signal under the coil: Concurrent TMS-fMRI study
4/17	Brittany Corbett	Is the ability to spontaneously resolve competing memories impaired with age?

For more information, contact Audrey Duarte, (678) 757-5861, audrey.duarte@psych.gatech.edu