

Federal Bureau of Investigation Resource Planning Office

How to Apply

Honors Internship Program Summer 2021

The FBI Honors Internship Program is a 10-week, paid internship for undergraduate and graduate college students. Students will work side-by-side with FBI employees at FBI HQ or in one of 56 field offices located across the country.

Paid Summer Internship opportunities are available for fulltime students

Apply for Internship with RPO

To apply, visit www.fbijobs.gov/students/undergrad. If interested in RPO specifically, select Washington, DC and Resource Planning Office as your location & division/field office preferences, in step 7 of the application.

Location Preferences
*First Location Preference	Washington, DC	Division/Field Office: Resource Planning Office
*Second Location Preference		Division/Field Office:
*Third Location Preference		Division/Field Office:
Fourth Location Preference		Division/Field Office:
Fifth Location Preference		Division/Field Office:
Sixth Location Preference		Division/Field Office:

US Military Service

The posting closes Wednesday, September 30th

Drug Policy Disqualifiers

Marijuana/Cannabis

- Within 3 years of application
- Includes: hashish, hash oil, THC (synthetic or natural)

Other Illegal Drugs

- Within 10 years of application
- Includes: anabolic steroids without a prescription

Visit FBIjobs.gov for more information

Questions? Email RPO_Recruiting@fbi.gov