

Social Media: Engaging for impact in STEM fields

Dr. Paige Jarreau

Science Communication
Specialist, Louisiana State

March 3, 9am

Marcus Nano - Room 1116

Dr. Paige Brown Jarreau is a science communicator with extensive experience leading evidence-based science and environmental communication research and professional projects. She is the author of the science blog FromTheLabBench.com and also blogs at Altmetric, where she writes a monthly feature on the most popular scientific research papers. Although a scientist by trade, she is a writer at heart.

For more information, including interest in the entire 9-12pm workshop with Dr. Jarreau, please contact Kim Cobb (kcobb@gatech.edu).
