

SECONDARY CATERING CONTRACTS

Effective September 20, 2016, there are new contracts for Secondary Catering Services. The contracts were divided into two categories - Informal and Formal/High End Catering.

Informal catering is defined but not limited to, casual, non-sophisticated dining settings, buffets, boxed lunches, usually non-plated, unceremonious receptions.

Formal/high end catering is defined but not limited to, full-service catering in a formal and/or sophisticated dining setting, serving premier food and presenting it in a tasteful manner. It may include seated/multi-course meals as well as buffets, receptions, etc. The caterer must also be able to provide:

- Menu planning - tasting and previews
- Rental coordination (tables, chairs, decorations, etc.)
- Day-of set-up and management service
- Staffing
- Walk-through with the planner
- Table-Scaping and/or decor assistance

NOTE: A few caterers were awarded contracts in both categories.
