

The Center for European and Transatlantic Studies & the Ivan Allen College present:

Dreaming of Denmark

What happens to the many unaccompanied refugee children that disappear from the Danish asylum centers year after year? Director, Michael Graversen, follows the fate of one of these young boys on the shady side of European society.

Wednesday, April 20th
3:30 PM—5:30 PM
Clary Theatre

Join us for a screening of the documentary followed by a discussion with Danish filmmaker Michael Graversen

Co-Sponsored by: Sam Nunn School of International Affairs | School of Modern Languages
School of Literature, Media, and Communication | Office of the Arts