

“What is SBIR?” Info Session

Looking for funding to help transform your innovation into a viable product, but have been told your concept is unproven, too risky, or too early for investors? Non-dilutive federal SBIR funding might be right for your company. Heard about SBIR but not sure what it is exactly or if it applies to you or your company? This class is a starting point designed for those that know little or nothing about SBIR. Come learn the basics to help you decide if you should pursue it further.

Date and Time: October 13, 2026 | 11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
